Template - Marie Skłodowska-Curie Postdoctoral Fellowships in Germany

The University of Kassel is looking for excellent researchers to apply for Horizon Europe's Marie Skłodowska-Curie Actions Postdoctoral Fellowships (MSCA PF) with the University of Kassel as host institution.

Applications should preferably tie in with the University's two Core Research Areas, i.e. Multifunctional Matter and Multiscale Systems, and Sustainable Transformations. Please get in touch with researchers who could supervise your project. Search for potential supervisors in the University's departments and institutes: <https://www.uni-kassel.de/uni/en/university/organisation/departments-and-institutes>.

The University of Kassel offers the best conditions for innovative and interdisciplinary research due to its broad range of subjects. Accordingly, in the university's two profile-forming research focal points, outstandingly qualified scientists work together on topics that are significant across disciplines in the medium and long term. Thanks to the superbly established interdisciplinary research climate at the University of Kassel, both core research areas contribute to finding multi-layered solutions for urgent future issues. The Research and Graduate Funding Office will guide you through the MSCA PF application process (<https://www.uni-kassel.de/go/msca>). We will be happy to answer your questions regarding the eligibility for funding, advise you on your project idea, read your proposal draft (sent to us before 30.05.2024), provide feedback on the structure and evaluation criteria, and help you complete the required documents.

Application procedure: contact potential supervisors at the University of Kassel to discuss your research project idea, and send your express of interest to Dr Malgorzata Siennicka-Rahmstorf (malgorzata.siennicka-rahmstorf@uni-kassel.de) until 30.05.2024 at the latest.
