ABOUT EURAXESS RIGHTS

EURAXESS Rights refers to the European Charter for Researchers and the Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers, and their implementation.

Both the ‘Charter and Code’ spell out the roles, responsibilities and rights of researchers as well as of their employers and funders. They guarantee attractive research careers and improve employment and working conditions for researchers throughout Europe.

EURAXESS Rights is a major component of the European Union’s strategy to stimulate employment and economic growth, by setting up a competitive, transparent and open labour market for researchers.

THE EUROPEAN CHARTER FOR RESEARCHERS COVERS AMONGST OTHERS:
- Recognition of the profession
- Career development
- Value of mobility

THE CODE OF CONDUCT FOR THE RECRUITMENT OF RESEARCHERS COVERS AMONGST OTHERS:
- Recruitment principles
- Selection criteria
- Postdoctoral appointments

By the end of 2008 almost 900 institutions from 25 European and non-European countries have signed up.

The list of undersigning organisations is available at: http://ec.europa.eu/euraxess/rights

WHO CAN SIGN THE CHARTER AND CODE?

Any organisation employing or funding researchers (i.e. universities, private companies, research centres) can sign up. Organisations may be located all over the world and do not have to be based in the European Union. The Charter and Code should be signed by the organisation’s highest authority.

By signing the Charter and Code, an organisation voluntarily commits to implementing the common objectives outlined in both documents.

HOW TO SIGN THE CHARTER AND CODE?

The signature process is simple. If your organisation agrees with the principles of the Charter and Code, please contact rtd-charter@ec.europa.eu

The EURAXESS Rights team will guide you through the signature process.

HOW TO IMPLEMENT THE CHARTER AND CODE?

The ‘Human Resources Strategy for Researchers’ assists the undersigning organisations in the implementation of the Charter and Code. This step by step process enables organisations to truly integrate the principles into their own Human Resources policy, thereby promoting the organisation as a stimulating and favourable work place.
