Position
University Assistant (post doc)
at the Faculty of Chemistry

Reference number: 10747

The group of Prof. Backus at the Institute of Physical Chemistry studies structure and dynamics of molecular processes with a current focus on interfaces. We apply static and time-resolved vibrational spectroscopic methods. To strengthen our team, we are looking for a PostDoc.

Duration of employment: 3 years
Extent of Employment: 40 hours/week
Job grading in accordance with collective bargaining agreement: §48 VwGr. B1 lit. b (postdoc) with relevant work experience determining the assignment to a particular salary grade.

Responsibilities
The position is dedicated to study the structure and reaction dynamics of environmental relevant molecules at water interfaces and in bulk water. As such, active contribution to research is expected. Independent teaching of courses as defined by the collective agreement and supervision of students.

Requirements
PhD in chemistry or physics with experience in spectroscopy or with molecular systems relevant for the position. Excellent command of written and spoken English and German. Ability to work in a team. Experience with vibrational spectroscopy and/or experience with constructing complex setups.

Application documents:
Letter of motivation, academic CV (including a list of publications, a list of courses and a list of talks given),
